The death angel visited the home of Elmer Decker and wife of Okla., last week, and claimed their two little ones in less than 24 hours apart, little Floy Adeline aged 8 months, passing away in spasms on Tuesday and Guy Elmer on Wednesday. The children had been sick for several weeks, but the relatives here did not suspect they were dangerous until the sad message came telling of the death of the little girl, and in less than 24 hours, another one telling that the little boy had been called also. After the first message came, Art Brown left for his sister's home, but did not reach there until after the little boy's death also. He accompanied the parents and Grandmother Decker with the two little bodies to Lamar Thursday where the double funeral was held in the Baptist Church amid a large crowd of sorrowing and sympathizing friends and relatives. The floral offerings were both profuse and beautiful. After the services they were laid to rest in the Lamar cemetery in a double grave, to await the resurrection morn when they will welcome the coming of the loved ones here with open arms. The exact cause of their death is unknown to us. The little patients suffered much and before death relieved them they became very weak. Mrs. Decker was, before her marriage, Miss Floy Brown, and several years ago taught the Blue Star school.
She has many friends here who join the community as a whole in extending to these bereaved parents and other relatives their heartfelt sympathy. The out-of-town relatives attending the funeral, were John Brown and wife and Miss Beatrice Mitchell of Iowa and Mrs. Charles Buzzard of Sarcoxie, Mo.
